

I would like to file a comment of support for the Fred Baumgartner Low Power AM petition. As a legally blind individual, I have found it difficult to compete in mainstream commercial radio, and the costs of purchasing existing stations has put it out of reach for the ordinary citizen. I am very interested in LPAM for a rural community with no local service.